A PRETTY SPRING POEM

Oh erst! Oh erst!
 Did I but durst
 And couldst, I wouldst, oh! I Describe in words the greens and birds—
 The fleecy springtime sky!

Oh hist, oh hist!
 Observe the list
 To you hence-winged bee,
 With laden pouch of sugar—ouch!
 Culled from the bamboo tree.

Biff bing! Biff bing!
 Oh gentle spring
 To thee I voice my lay:
 For I love thee—
 Oh, hully gee—
 Take off thy hat and stay!

CLEAN UP! PAINT UP!

The firm of J. J. Wood & Son has started the spring clean-up program by having its big building at the corner of Second and Market streets repainted. The appearance of the town would be much improved if others would do likewise.

Hear Georgia Hicks, Louise Hunsicker, Eleanor Wood and Margaret Smith—the Big Four Senior Quartet—in solos, duets and quartets, Friday evening, at the High School auditorium 8 p. m. They sing old-fashioned songs, the kind that mother used to sing and in old-fashioned costumes.

SUIT FILED

At Georgetown, Ohio, By Maysville Tobacco Men Against Ohio Farmers for Selling Tobacco Alleged to Have Been Purchased by Plaintiff.

A. L. Powers, B. D. Bryant, A. T. Davidson and W. Holton Key, partners under the firm name and style of A. L. Powers and Company, have brought suit in the Court of Common Pleas against E. E. Galbreath, W. T. Galbreath, J. M. Galbreath, T. N. Cahall and Luther Kirkpatrick, for damages and an injunction.

The plaintiffs allege in their petition the defendants, W. T. Galbreath and J. M. Galbreath, who are the sons of E. E. Galbreath, are the owners of a farm of about 340 acres in Pleasant township; that E. E. Galbreath is the manager of this farm and T. N. Cahall the tenant on it. The plaintiffs claim that they bought the tobacco about 14,000 pounds, last December, from T. N. Cahall, who grew it and who had authority to sell it, at 26 1/2 cents a pound. The tobacco was to be delivered to them at a warehouse in Maysville and they claim that while Cahall is delivering the one-half of it as fast as it is stripped and made ready for market, that the Galbreaths are refusing to deliver the other half and are selling it over the Riplee loose leaf market. Luther Kirkpatrick is made a party defendant because it is claimed that he has, or claims to have, a chattel mortgage on the tobacco. The plaintiffs gave a bond in the sum of $2,000 and obtained temporary injunction, restraining the Galbreaths and Kirkpatrick from disposing of the tobacco until the case can be heard.

In their petition the plaintiffs claim that the tobacco is now worth 41 1/2 cents a pound. Some high cost of chewing!

Mr. John C. Browning and Mr. Walter Browning returned home after attending the funeral of their nephew, Mr. Collis Haley of Branch Hill, O., which took place Tuesday afternoon.

FATALLY WOUNDED

Young Soldier Said to Have Been Found in Compromising Position With Wife of Friend, Who Shot Him—Affray Took Place at St. Paul, Lewis County.

Late Monday afternoon at St. Paul, Lewis county, H. L. Willis was shot by Henry Hammis and as a result of the wounds died on Tuesday night. Willis was a telegraph operator and was employed at St. Paul until about six months ago, when he enlisted in the Signal Corps and was stationed at Camp Sherman, Ohio.

Sunday he secured a five day furlough and returned to visit and dispose of a railroad velocipede that he owned. Monday about 4:30 p. m. he arrived at the signal tower near St. Paul with the car which needed some repair. He took the part off, took it to the home of Henry Hammis, living about 50 yards away, who is employed as a section hand, and was supposed to repair it, he giving it to Hammis to take to the car and bolt it on. When he got to the car he was unable to do the work so returned to the house and not seeing Willis or his wife on the front porch he entered the house where he says he discovered them in a very compromising position. He at once pulled a small 22 caliber pistol which he always carried and began shooting with the result that one of the bullets entered Willis' head above the left ear. Willis was at once carried by those who gathered, to the tracks where he was shortly placed aboard a train and rushed to the hospital at Portsmouth. Mr. Hammis accompanied Mr. Carl Chapman to Vanceburg Tuesday and he surrendered to the authorities and was released on $300 bond.

GERMAN GUNS

Thunder Over Fifty Mile Front—Terrible Fire Is Concentrated on the British Line.

The big guns are thundering on land and sea, and it may be the much-boasted German offensive on the West front has begun.

Just at the moment when the fighting has increased, in intensity all along the line, Emperor William is quoted by an American dispatch to the Central News at London as having sent the following telegram to the Reichstag Provincial Council:

"We are at the decisive moment of the war, and one of the greatest moments in German history."
 London announces a naval engagement at Dunkirk, in which two enemy destroyers and two enemy torpedo boats were sunk by the French and English destroyers, who escaped with slight casualties, and the damage of one British vessel, while the English War Office states that the Germans have begun a heavy bombardment of a wide section of the British front extending fifty miles from Vandueel to the river Scarpe, south of St. Quentin.

The American and French forces also have been active. The Americans during a raid penetrate the German lines for some distance in the Lunenburg sector, while the French repulsed a strong attack by the Germans in the Woever.

The beginning by the German artillery of a heavy bombardment along such a wide front may mean that preparation for the much-advertised German offensive in the West has begun. The preparatory work was about due to begin today, if the advance announcements were to be taken at their face value, judging from the news of a day or two ago that a party of neutral correspondents had been invited by the German high command to start for the West front on Wednesday "to witness the offensive."

It is, of course, impossible to say whether the present burst of artillery fire on this front means that it is along the line indicated, or somewhere within its limits, that the heavy German blow, if one indeed is coming, is to be struck. There is the consideration that the bombardment in this particular area may be a feint, to cover a stroke in an altogether different sector. The most natural conclusion, however, is that the drive is to be made at some point in the area now under fire.

This area embraces most of the territory outside of Flanders, over which the British have been fighting, sometimes alone and sometimes in conjunction with the French, for the last two years. It takes in, for instance, the entire field of the battle of the Somme, fought in the fall of 1916, and a great part of the area evacuated by the Germans the following spring. Within these lines also is the battlefield of Cambrai, where the British and Germans won victories in last fall's fighting.

Virtually all the territory fought over in the great battle of Arras during the spring of 1917 also lies in the area under bombardment.

MANY WANT SEED CORN

A number of Mason county farmers have expressed their desire of receiving some of Dent's white seed corn that was offered Secretary Dodds of the Chamber of Commerce by the Secretary of the Hopkinsville Business Men's Association. Yesterday morning Secretary Dodds sent a telegram to the Hopkinsville Secretary asking him to send some sample ears and asked if the seed corn was of the 1916 or 1917 crop. A reply will likely be received today or tomorrow and information will be gladly given any interested parties that call at the Chamber of Commerce.

MUCH GOODS

Being Received By Maysville Merchants Preparatory to Style Week, March 26 to 31.

All of the Maysville stores are receiving their spring stock and placing it on the shelves preparatory to the big spring rush they are expecting during next week, which will be Style Week.

Every store is displaying cards calling to the mind that March 31 is Easter and March 26 to March 31 will be Style Week.

The Committee has arranged that next Tuesday evening will be "one wonderful night" in the memory of the citizens of Maysville.

All the stores will be closed from 6:30 to 7:15 and the entire business district will be in darkness with the exception of the street lights. Promptly at 7:15 the windows will be uncovered and lights thrown on. The Maysville Gas Company has agreed to erect a mammoth search light, which will be thrown up and down Second and across Market street.

All the stores will be open Tuesday evening and a maze of beauty both in the windows and stores will greet the paraders. There is more money in this country than ever before and we expect that on Easter Sunday there will be more new gowns, hats and suits on the streets of Maysville than has ever been seen.

RECTORVILLE SCHOOL BOYS AND GIRLS ORGANIZE TO HELP GOVERNMENT

Mr. E. F. Boyd, Jr., spent Wednesday visiting the Rectorville High School, giving demonstrations in testing seed corn and organized Poultry and Pig Clubs.

Thirty-six girls and boys joined the poultry club. They will make an extra effort to increase Mason county's poultry contribution in behalf of the government's call. Eight boys promised Mr. Boyd to raise thorough-bred pigs. This is just another example of Mason county's endeavor to help increase the nation's food supply.

Last year the boys' and girls' clubs of Kentucky produced $150,000 worth of marketable products.

The nation is depending a great deal on the stock and agricultural products the boys' and girls' clubs will raise this year.

THE PERFECT ARMY

A German military expert named Col. Gaedeke, writing in the Bremer Zeitung, takes his turn in minimizing the "American menace", and ridiculing our military preparations as a gigantic bluff. It's the favorite indoor sport of German writers nowadays—everybody's doing it. Col. Goedeke, however, is not content with showing the absolute impossibility of our sending an army to France in time to be of any use in the war. He emphasizes the tremendous contrast between the best troops we can possibly muster and the peerless troops that they will face.

"The Americans are coming to Europe", he says, "to meet the most perfect instrument of warfare that any age has ever seen."

This would be very fine if Americans didn't happen to know how thoroughly the German military bluff has been punctured.

There is no disposition on this side of the Atlantic to question the fact that Germans make good soldiers, and that the German army is well trained. But we have got over regarding the German troops as super-soldiers and the German army as omnipotent.

It is a matter of history that the Germans have not won a single major engagement of this war when they were matched against an equal number of first-class troops, properly equipped. They won their first successes against the Belgians, French and British by dint of overwhelming numbers and guns. As soon as a parity was reached on the western front, they had to dig in, and made no further headway. Since then they have lost steadily.

They have, indeed, beaten the Russians, who were poorly disciplined and still more poorly equipped. They have beaten the Romanians and the Serbians by massing superior strength against them. They have beaten the Italians on one occasion, through intrigue and treachery rather than fighting. But in the last three years they have been beaten continually by the French, the British and the Belgians in fair and prolonged fight. The British have thrashed the Kaiser's best troops so repeatedly that no Tommy expects anything else when he goes against them. Man for man and corps for corps, the allied forces on the Western front have proved themselves superior to Germany's best.

Canadians particularly have demonstrated their superiority over and over again. We do not consider our boys any better fighters than the Canadians, but we know they are as good. They are virtually the same stock, animated by the same spirit. And we're not worrying any as to what our army will do when it meets that "most perfect instrument of warfare that any age has ever seen." The pleasure will be ours.

WILL WE DO IT?

When France, last fall, faced an absolute sugar famine, our government took quick, drastic action. It withdrew from the sugar supply of this country the hundred thousand tons or so that France needed to save her people from sugar starvation, and then told the American people it was up to them to make up the deficit by eating less sugar. That caused this winter's scarcity. And no American worth a hill o' beans begrudges the French people that sugar.

Well, it's come to the same thing with wheat. Our European allies are in sore need of flour. They'll soon be without bread unless they can get wheat from us. They need, at the very least, 75,000,000 bushels to provide their people with the bottom bread ration required to sustain their life and working energy. They would like to get 100,000,000 bushels. The only place where they can hope to get the wheat is in the United States. And we haven't any surplus.

What are we going to do about it? Precisely what we did about sugar. We have got to make a surplus. The food administration is considering the plan of cutting down sales of flour in this country to 75 per cent of the amount now handled, thereby releasing 90,000,000 bushels of wheat to be milled and shipped to our allies. Mr. Hoover will certainly do so if he is satisfied that the American public is in a mood to endure the resulting inconvenience.

Any American should be ashamed not to making his share of the sacrifice cheerfully and gladly. It isn't a question of going hungry, anyhow, as it is in Europe. We have plenty of food. Our women and children will not suffer. It's merely a question of dietary adjustment. We must eat more of the other cereals, especially corn, and more vegetables, especially potatoes, in order to get along with less bread.

Will we do it? We will.

L. L. LENROOT WINS REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR THE U. S. SENATE

Milwaukee, Wis., March 20—More or less complete returns from every county in the State tonight sustained the lead of Congressman Irvine L. Lenroot, loyalist candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator in yesterday's primaries.

Belated returns gave him 68,532 votes, or 2,326 more than received by James Thompson, the La Follette candidate.

Thompson did not concede defeat pending complete returns, but at Marquette a big meeting of farmers greeted Lenroot, who addressed them as victor, amid prolonged cheers. Mr. Lenroot denied a rumor that, to make certain of defeating Victor Berger, the Socialist candidate who is under indictment for alleged violation of the espionage act, he would withdraw in favor of Joseph E. Davies, Democratic candidate.

"The report that I would withdraw in favor of Mr. Davies is absolutely without foundation," he said. "We have made the fight in the Republican party on the loyalty issue and have won it, notwithstanding the efforts of certain parties to place the stamp of disloyalty upon the Republican party."

On the face of the latest returns Davies had 54,173 votes, compared with 12,262 for Dr. Charles McCarthy. The same advice made the Berber vote 36,645.

EVERY BACK YARD

Should Have a Garden This Year—
Start Vegetable Plants Early—
Plant Now So That Plants
Will Not Have To Be Forced.

Seed for early crops of cabbage, cauliflower, and celery should be sown in February. Ten days or two weeks later seed of tomato, pepper, eggplant, head lettuce and similar crops should be planted in the hotbed also. It is advisable to divide the bed with a partition, keeping one section cool to suit the first group of vegetables which grow best at temperatures of 50 to 60 degrees Fahrenheit while the other section can be used for the second group, which grow best at 75 to 80 degrees. The simple manure-headed hotbed with fifteen inches of fresh fermenting horse manure under four inches of medium rich soil and covered with standard glass sash, is quite satisfactory for growing early vegetable plants. The seed may be sown in a few rows at one side of the bed, or perhaps a few shallow boxes in the windows of a fairly warm room indoors may serve. As soon as the seedlings form a second pair of leaves which will be from two to three weeks after the seed are sown, they will be ready to transplant to the hotbed. They should be set two by three three inches apart. This transplanting should not injure the roots severely. It gives the individual plants room in which to develop short, stocky, leafy stems with large root systems, instead of the tall spindling plants with few roots which are produced when the plants are crowded. Usually it is best to set the plants directly in the soil of the hotbed, but it is also convenient to set them in flats or shallow boxes which can be placed in the hotbed and later shifted to a cold-frame without disturbing the plants.

Large plants, as tomato and eggplant, ought to be transplanted two for best results. The seedlings are set in the hotbed two by three inches apart or transplanted to flats in the same manner as other plants. When they become crowded or root-bound in this position, four or five weeks later they should be removed to a cold frame, where they may be set four by four inches apart, or better still potted in four-inch clay pots, which are staged side by side in the cold frame. Here the plants are gradually exposed to outdoor conditions and hardened off by withholding part of

CRISIS IN JAPANESE CABINET REPORTED TO BE IMMINENT

Tokyo, March 20.—A Cabinet crisis is rumored to be imminent. There are strong reports of a contemplated formation of a coalition Government in which the Premier, Field Marshal Terauchi, will be War Minister.

The general understanding of the press and public here is that Japan has postponed all plans looking toward intervention in Siberia, awaiting the outcome of further exchanges of views with the United States Government.

It is known that America's views will weigh heavily, perhaps decisively, in Japan's future course.

As a result of the let-up of intervention rumors and reports the market has recovered from the depression which featured the last fortnight or so.

CONGRESS CALLED UPON TO ACT AGAINST DELAY

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 21.—A report of the Resolutions Committee unanimously adopted by the delegates of the Ohio River Terminal Conference, just before adjournment yesterday afternoon, epitomized the work of the convention and the pledges of cooperation in the construction of municipal terminals. The report, which it is believed will answer the questions asked by the Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House of Representatives, recognized that construction of suitable facilities for quick and economical handling of freight at all municipal landings was absolutely essential to the revival of river commerce, and would justify the governmental expenses for channel improvement.

Other provisions in the report were the pledging of every lawful means to induce favorable action immediately by municipalities for providing terminal facilities that would give commerce all the advantages of water transportation as soon as river navigation was made reliable by improvements now under way.

The fourth paragraph of the report stated: "We believe that the annual attacks on proposed appropriations

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Many Aches and Ills of Maysville People.

As one weak link weakness a chain so may weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and generally when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills frequently come, and there is an ever-increasing gravel or fatal Bright's disease. When the kidneys fail there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Maysville testimony is proof of their effectiveness.

Mrs. Harry Mann, 495 W. Second St., says: "About two years ago, I suffered from an attack of kidney trouble that had lasted for a long time. I had a dull, constant ache in the small of my back and the pains were often sharp. I was also dizzy and felt tired and languid. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I haven't been bothered by kidney trouble since. I gladly advise anyone to get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the Chenoweth Drug Co., if troubled by their kidneys."

Mrs. Mann is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Mann had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name."

for the further improvement of the Ohio River east doubt and uncertainty on its ultimate completion, thereby frightening away instead of attracting capital investment in river lines. We, therefore, believe that to encourage capital it is essential that the Ohio River improvement be put under the continuing contract system, or that Congress is some other manner indicate its fixed purpose to prosecute the improvement to completion with all possible speed.

Thanks were extended, in the report, to Chairman John H. Small, of the Rivers and Harbors Committee, and the Ohio Valley Improvement Association for arranging the conference and "commending the general subject of municipal terminals along the Ohio River to its watchful care."

The report was signed by the following members of the Committee on Resolutions: Albert Bettinger, Chairman, Cincinnati; Frank M. Bagg, Secretary, Portsmouth, Ohio; Charles E. Basler, Cincinnati; John H. Rosenberger, Evansville, Ind.; George F. Zimmermann, Mt. Vernon, Ind.; D. B. G. Rose, Louisville, Ky.; William C. Botts, Newport, Ky.; Scott Thompson, Huntington, W. There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

AUCTION OF NOTABLE PEN

While the House was marking time tonight waiting for reports from the Senate, Representative A. L. Hamilton, acting Speaker, announced that the pen with which Gov. Stanley signed the Ballard-Frost State-wide prohibition bill would be auctioned off to the highest bidder and the proceeds donated to the Frankfort chapter of Red Cross. The Rev. George C. Waggoner, dry leader on the floor of the House, acted as auctioneer. W. F. Klair, of Lexington, started the bidding at $5, and it jumped in bids of $5 and $10 up to $150, being knocked down to Representative Clarence Miller, of Estill county. Klair and Miller, one a wet and the other a dry worker were the only ones to bid on the pen.

After the pen had been auctioned a subscription was taken, to be donated to the Red Cross, and $547.48 collected. Among the subscriptions were four of $50 each made by Speaker Crowe, W. F. Klair, Levy Banta and Clarence Miller, three of $25 each by Lilburn Phelps, H. C. Chappell and A. L. Baldwin and three of $10 each by T. R. Welch, M. E. Lee and B. C. Beckmann. The balance was contributed by the members when hats were passed around. The net result of the night in the House for the Red Cross fund was $697.48.

William B. Lane of Lexington, was a business visitor here yesterday.

BILLS PASSED

By Assembly Were Varied—Appropriations Exceed $1,000,000 Mark and Set Up New State Record.

Frankfort, Ky., March 21.—The Kentucky General Assembly which set the precedent last night of adjourning before it became necessary to turn the hands of the clock back, accomplished an amazing programme of legislation.

Following up the experience of the State Tax Commission since the special session, it enacted probably a score of measures designed to clarify the laws and improve the system in details, besides raising the standard as well as pay of local assessing officers and making them eligible for reelection, adopting the budget system of State finance and apportioning the tax levy, instead of appropriating money out of the general fund for the support of the educational institutions.

Three big road laws were enacted apportioning the State-aid fund so that small counties will receive a proportionately larger aid without reducing the annual apportionment of larger counties, requiring State-aid roads to be maintained at a standard and regulating the weight to be hauled on the highways to the width of tires.

The candidates for admission to the bar now will have to stand an examination before a Court of Appeals Commission.

While the General Assembly had it done nothing else might have gone down into history as the "million-dollar" Legislature, by reason of the large number of appropriations necessitated by the niggardly policy of the last eight years, the fact remains that in the Senate where the bills originated, Senator Helm, chairman of the Appropriations Committee, held up every measure until he had them all before him, they were totaled and scaled down two-thirds of their aggregate and the General Assembly, which adopted the budget system of appropriations for the future actually put it into practice.

Appropriations aggregate $1,150,000.

Much of the big legislation had to do with perfecting the tax system. A budget was adopted, the tax levy apportioned and County Assessors, now known as Tax Commissioners, are given half again as much pay and qualifications are required for the office, to which they can be re-elected.

A dozen other bills concerned with the details of assessments were passed.

Two constitutional amendments are submitted to the people at the 1919 election. One is State-wide prohibition and the other empowers the Legislature to pass laws providing for the removal of peace officers and judges failing to protect their prisoners from mobs.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

Suffering Described As Torture Relieved by Black-Draught.

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture.

I sent and bought Theodor's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to eat at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theodor's Black-Draught."

Theodor's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work. Try it!
